Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) has contributed significantly for institutionalizing quality assurance strategies and processes visible in terms of incremental improvements made during the preceding year. The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of the institute has been trying to develop a system for conscious, consistent and catalytic action to improve the academic and administrative performance of the institution.

Examples of best practices institutionalized as a result of IQAC initiatives as follows.

1) Academic audit of Department

IQAC has its objective on the conduction of academic review at department level as well as at institute level at least once in a semester before formation of the curriculum, extensive feedback from all the stack holders including parents, alumni, industry persons and students are taken and their comments are incorporated into the curriculum as far as practicable.

Objective:

- To update the subject file, lab file and other activity as per academic plan.
- To assess the academic calendar for conduct of continuous internal evaluation

2) Feedback System: Under the guidance of IQAC and academic coordinator feedback analysis done and need of improvement should be done for the faculties lagging in feedback were suggested to the head of institution
