DVV Clarifications	HEI Response
A> The observation has been made that the HEI has provided certificates to candidates that are not at requisite-level, rendering them ineligible for consideration. The HEI must ensure that the activities in question reach the requisite level of University/State/National/International standards. HEI required to revise its claimed figures. HEI is required to furnish documentation for each activity, including but not limited to brochures and any other relevant materials verifying the activity's level. B> The HEI is further required to compile, in chronological order and organized by academic year: 1. A list exclusively comprising awards and medals attained for exceptional performance in sports or cultural activities at the University/State/National/International level. 2. The names of the student(s) who garnered said awards and medals. 3. Soft copies of the corresponding certificates awarded to the student(s). 4. Geo-tagged photographs showcasing students engaged in sports or cultural activities, preferably alongside banners.	The links for the support documents for the assessment year is given in the preceding table for kind approval.
